

Please, do not reverse neither weaken the Do Not Call List. By registering in it, we have expressed our wish of not receiving calls from people who want to sell something, who are doing surveys, etc. Our wish should be respected. If I wish to have or get a service, I look for it. I do not want people to be offering me something that I do not need and insist by calling again and again.